

OKLAHOMA

JULY 2012

THE BEST
OKLAHOMA
MAGAZINE of the BEST 2012

LUXURY HOMES
2012

OKLAHOMA: SEX TRADE CROSSROADS

Home

Room for a growing family. Love that lamp! Built to last. Dream home.

Architect, Residential

Oklahoma has so many talented architects, it's tough to choose which one is right to turn your dreams into a new home reality. Our Tulsa readers have once again placed Jack Arnold, renowned for his ability to translate classic European designs for modern living, at the top of the list. Alan Madewell of Alan Madewell and Associates comes in next with his exacting designs that recall classic Americana. Rounding out the list are Brian Freese of Freese Architecture and John Duvall of Duvall Architects.

At the top of our Oklahoma City list is the innovative and versatile Rand Elliott of Elliott + Associates Architects, known for truly noteworthy buildings, including select residential projects. Next is Brian Fitzsimmons of Fitzsimmons Architects, whose team creates artistic and unexpected spaces, and is active in OKC urban renewal. With 50-plus years experience, Robert Fillmore of Fillmore & Chambers Design Group rounds out the list.

Architect, Commercial Firm

Matrix Architects Engineers Planners takes the top spot in this new category. This full-service firm has played a role in numerous Tulsa landmarks from the BOK Center to the Hotel Ambassador. Next is the multi-disciplinary team at Kinslow, Keith & Todd, who have put their stamp on projects ranging from shopping centers to country clubs to churches. The 47-year-old firm of Crafton Tull finishes the list.

With more than 30 years in business and extensive experience weighted toward health care and academia, Miles & Associates comes in first in OKC. TAP Architecture is next up for their wide-ranging project list with an emphasis on urban development and preservation. The 65-year-old firm of Frankfurt Short Bruza firm rounds out the list.

Bathroom Fixtures

When building the perfect bath, our Tulsa readers turn to Heatwave Supply Company with popular brands, such as Moen and Kohler and national retailer Lowe's with its top brands and convenient service. Wide selection and expert service land Ferguson Bath and Kitchen Gallery and The Home Depot the next spot in our poll. Empire Kitchen & Bath, with 20 years in business, is another popular choice with our readers.

When creating a new master suite or powder room, OKC readers most often turn to Morrison Supply Company for their extensive inventory, including Grohe and Kallista. Ferguson Bath & Kitchen Gallery comes in next on our list for their years of superior service and a wide selection of trusted brands. OKC readers also look to Designer Hardware by Faye for original and custom pieces.

Cabinetry

If you're in the market for new kitchen cabinets, Oklahoma Magazine readers suggest you head to Lowe's or The Home Depot. The two national retailers offer a range of styles and expert advice and installation. Mill Creek Lumber and Supply, with an inspiring showroom and products from Dura Supreme and Western Cabinets, takes our second spot in Tulsa. Sullivan's Custom Cabinetry and Jay Rambo share the next place on the list. Both firms have created custom work found in some of Tulsa's finest homes.

Classic Kitchen takes top honors with Oklahoma City readers. The exclusive Wood-Mode dealer has been serving the area for almost 30 years. Suburban Cabinet Shop has been designing and building cabinets for OKC dream kitchens for more than 50 years. The award-winning karen black company and the Old World-style craftsmen at Monticello Cabinets & Doors share the final spot on the list.

Designer Home Furnishings

Whether you're completely redecorating or just looking for that perfect chair for the living room, there is a furnishings store that will suit

Brian and Tony Jordan, Jordan & Sons,
Best Home Builder

HEATH SHARP