Architect, Commercial Firm

We typically think of architects as designing homes, but they also design every building we walk into. Kinslow, Keith & Todd has designed some of Tulsa's most well-known structures, including the renovation of Sequoyah State Lodge Park and the Woody Guthrie Center. Selser Schaefer Architects' projects include medical and educational facilities, including the TCC Center for Creativity in downtown Tulsa. Matrix is perhaps best known for engineering the building of the BOK Center as well as several prominent buildings in downtown Tulsa.

A principal at TAP Architecture, Anthony McDermid has spearheaded many public projects in Oklahoma City, including Core To Shore and Central Moore Park. D5 Architecture specializes in both commercial and hospitality and retail projects, including the Seminole Nation Casino. Frankfurt-Short-Bruza has a vast portfolio that includes the Capitol Dome renovation and the Chickasaw Nation Cultural Center.

Architect, Residential

A home is a reflection of its owners, but it also shows the talent and creativity of the architect. Jack Arnold is an architect renowned for his sophisticated home designs. Alan Madewell of Alan Madewell and Associates specializes in large, custom homes for loyal clients. Brian Freese of Freese Architecture has a unique aesthetic that combines modern lines with nature. John Duvall of Duvall Architects designs elegant homes for those hoping for a homey yet elegant feel.

Rand Elliott of Elliott + Associates continues to wow readers in Oklahoma City with his modern, minimalist home designs. JGF Design Studio specializes in custom homes in Oklahoma and beyond. Bruce Bockus of Bockus-Payne Associates builds luxury homes for clients with discerning tastes.
