

OKLAHOMA

JULY 2025

THE

26th Annual

Plus:
Oklahoma's Most Influential People

891 Winners in
145 Categories
OF THE BEST
2025

HOME

Architect, Residential

Residential architectural firms bring client visions to life.

In Tulsa, voters support Jack Arnold of Jack Arnold Companies for his sophisticated style and expertise in European design; Brian Freese of Freese Architecture, who focuses on beautiful, lasting and livable designs; John Duvall of Duvall Atelier, who can handle complete homes, restaurants, bars and single room makeovers; and Richard Winn Architects DBA TWO Architecture, which provides thoughtful, design-focused architectural services.

In Oklahoma City, voters choose the expertise of Hans E. Butzer of Butzer Architects and Urbanism, with recent projects including the Johnson Space Center Lunar Research Lab; Bruce Bockus of Bockus Payne Architecture, who views architecture as a responsive art form requiring collaboration; and Fitzsimmons Architects, which helps clients from initial design to final completion in an array of industries.

Architect, Commercial

Dotting Oklahoma's skyline, commercial architects create lasting infrastructure.

In Tulsa, winners include KKT Architects, which serves the healthcare, education, non-profit and hospitality sectors, among others; JCJ Architecture, P.C., operating with a mission to provide design solutions that enhance the built environment; TriArch, a Native-owned firm which creates purpose-driven buildings; and IArchitecture, staffed with hands-on, engaged experts ready to create functional spaces.

In OKC, voters choose Rand Elliott of Rand Elliott Architects, who has won nearly 400 awards for architectural excellence; Renaissance Architecture, which staffs architects, planners and interior designers; and Prime Architects, which is veteran-owned with a focus on commercial and government architecture services.

Bathroom Fixtures

Finding the right fixtures can transform a bathroom.

In Tulsa, DIY designers and pros alike choose the wide array of inventory found at Ferguson Bath, Kitchen & Lighting; Home Hardware for its competitive pricing; Tulsa Winnelson, which combines selection of a large supplier with customer service of a local store; Heatwave Supply, which sells faucets, sinks, shower heads and toilets; and Pierpont's Bath & Kitchen, which has been providing quality bathroom hardware since 1988.

In OKC, voters also trust Ferguson Bath, Kitchen & Lighting; alongside Architectural Hardware Designs, locally owned with dozens of brands; and Reece Bath and Kitchen, which sells the latest trends as well as the classics.

JCJ Architecture, P.C., TUL; photo by Chipper Hatter

Cabinetry

When you're looking to upgrade a room, the right cabinets make all the difference.

Tulsans vote up Sullivan's Custom Cabinetry for its knowledgeable employees and competitive pricing; Mill Creek Lumber for its trusted reputation and top-of-the-line offerings; and Elite Cabinets, which provides innovative products for any room.

In OKC, voters trust OKC Cabinets for its expert carpentry and top-notch service; Classic Kitchens, which has provided timely and personalized services for over 25 years; and Suburban Cabinet Shop, dedicated to excellent service and quality since 1959.